The Lines We Draw

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 CORINTHIANS 15:3 For I gave over to you among the first things what I also received, that Christ died in behalf of our sins, according to the Scriptures,

4 and that He was buried, and that He has been raised the third day, according to the Scriptures,

READ ALONG: 1 Corinthians 15:3–4; Ephesians 4:3–6; Romans 14:1

Follow along

1. What does Paul say he handed on "among the first things"? (1 Corinthians 15:3–4)

2. Corinth was full of disputes. Why would Paul need to tell them what came first? (1 Corinthians 1:11–12)

3. Read the "one"s in Ephesians 4:4–6. Which of them do believers you disagree with also hold?

4. What kinds of things do believers argue about today — and which circle would each one go in?

5. Where do most of us learn which circle things belong in: from the text, or from the people who taught us? (Mark 9:38)

6. When a belief moves from circle 2 into circle 1, what happens to the people who hold the other view? (Romans 14:3)

7. Has anyone ever put you in a circle — decided which side you were on before you had said a word? (Romans 14:1)

THE ONE QUESTION

Which circle did you put your last argument in — and did Scripture put it there?

1. If Scripture moved that argument down one circle, who could you sit with again?

> The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
