What Holds Us Together?

The series question: "But desiring to justify himself, he said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

> LUKE 23:12 And on that same day, both Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for they before were at enmity [between] themselves.

READ ALONG: Genesis 11:1–9; Luke 23:6–12

Follow along

1. Pilate and Herod both said Jesus had done nothing to deserve death. They went along with the crowd anyway. Why do we go along with a group when we know it is wrong?

2. Jehovah scattered a unified people. Why is that not a contradiction of everything Scripture says about unity?

3. Where have you seen people come together mainly because they share an opponent?

4. What would our unity in Christ lead us to do for someone we have kept at a distance?

THE ONE QUESTION

What would still hold us together if we no longer had that person to be against?

> The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. This week it is for a fellow believer we have kept at a distance.
